

Hunter Engineering Company Supplier Excellence

This is to certify that

M. Lizen Manufacturing Company is recognized as a recipient of the 2017 Supplier Excellence Award

Congratulations to M. Lizen for earning the Supplier Excellence Award for the sixth consecutive year. Their communication is excellent regardless of whether it is regarding a quote or possible delay to a shipment. M. Lizen makes suggestions for continuous improvements to new parts when they see issues, as well as actively pursuing cost savings. They are consistent in their level of performance and you can tell they strive for perfection. We look forward to a continued successful relationship for years to come!
